

Cycling Velodrome is a Hub of Activity

posted by SuperUser Account on Wednesday, April 12, 2017 12:00 AM

This week will see a variety of activities at the National Cycling Velodrome, featuring three sports - athletics, volleyball and cycling.

On Wednesday 12 April, the Trinidad & Tobago Volleyball Federation (TTVF) will launch the start of national training at the National Cycling Velodrome from 1:00pm. Two courts have been laid down in the Velodrome's Centre Court and will be utilised by the national men's and women's teams, in particular the women who are preparing for their first appearance at the FIVB World Grand Prix in July 2017. Trinidad & Tobago plays in Group 3 against Hungary, Mexico, Cameroon, Australia with the aim of topping the group to move on the finals.

The Honourable Darryl Smith, Minister of Sport & Youth Affairs will be on hand to speak with the media about the accommodation of volleyball at the Velodrome, which is intended to be a multipurpose facility.

On Thursday 13 April, the Trinidad & Tobago Cycling Federation (TTCF) will host a Meet & Greet from 11:00am at the Velodrome's Centre Court with national and international athletes ahead of the Easter International Cycling Grand Prix. The annual event will take place at two venues - the Arima Velodrome and the National Cycling Velodrome - on 14, 15 April and 17 April respectively.

The Honourable Darryl Smith, Minister of Sport & Youth Affairs will be on hand to meet the athletes as the National Velodrome hosts yet another international cycling event.

The media is invited to cover all three activities and may contact Ms. Natasha Nunez at 337-5471 for further details.
